DIRECTOR'S LETTER

To all music lovers,

I feel as though I have to start this letter with 'wow what an horrendous 18 months we've had ' hopefully we're now out of it and life begins to return to normal.

We would like to thank all our clients for your loyal support and patience during this extremely difficult time. We've had to reschedule so many shows either due to lockdown or bands unable to perform due to travel or health reasons, but throughout it all, you have all being fully supportive and loyal to the Robin and in return i hope we've delivered an exciting line up for you all to enjoy.

During this time the Robin has had many staff casualties as it was a very difficult period to retain the team with no time frames or direction. So we've had to restart with virtually a new team, who've took up important roles showing pride in the job, attitudes and commitment.

I personally would like to wish any of our former staff best wishes for the future, especially Laura Smart who spent over 12 years working for the Robin RnB club, but has now opened her own business where we wish her every success.

Hopefully everyone has a great Christmas this year, and our Christmas gift to you, we have some great headline acts performing throughout December for your entertainment so please enjoy Christmas at the Robin.

Yours faithfully
